Secretary Root Approves the Re port of the Engineers.

Site Between the Soldiers' Home and North Capitol Street Chosen-Preliminary Work to Be Commenced at Once-The Cost Involved.

Secretary Root today formally adopted the plan submitted by the board of officers of the Engineer Corps appointed to select a site for the slow sand filtration plant to be constructed in connection with the District of Columbia water supply. The site chosen lies just east of the new reservoir between the Soldiers' Home and North Capitol Regiment of Infantry-Charles S. Frank. Street and is north of Cincinnati Street. The cost of the plant when completed will be $2,500,000. The annual cost of operating the sand beds which will supply clear drinking water to Washington is figured at $186,500. The work of constructing the plant will be begun within a few weeks

The report of the board of engineer officers came to Secretary Root with a strong endorsement and recommendation from Brig. Gen. John M. Wilson Chief of Engineers, and was submitted late Saturday afternoon,

Negotiations for the purchase of the necessary land will be closed at once. The plot contains thirty-five acres, or 1,544,556 square feet, and 1,111,176 square feet are laid out in building lots along Detroit and Cincinnati Streets and be Consul of the United States at Duran-First Street west. Commissioner Macfarland, who has suervision over the Fire Department, to-ay, recommended to his associates, and they approved, the appointment of R. W. Dutton, as Chief Engineer of the Fire Deartment, to succeed Joseph Parris, re-

The appointment of Mr Dutton came to him unsought, as he was in no sense a candidate for the position. When the matter was first broached to him, Mr. Dutton said that he could not afford to take it, owing to the amount of the salary attached. It is understood that he takes the place at the earnest solicitation of Commissioner Macfarland, and with the understanding that an effort to have the salary increased by Congress at the next session will be made.

The appointment of Mr. Dutton to the head of the Fire Department marks a departure in its control by giving it an executive rather than specifically a firefighting chief engineer. The matter has been very carefully considered by Commissioner Macfarland. The impression of the Chain Bridge, she was approached by a gypsy woman who wanted to tell her fortune to tell her fortune. MOVEMENTS OF WAR VESSELS. without danger of punishment or of having desertion placed against their names. Those who recturn within this period will not be prosecuted or sent to prison.

This is the first time in the history of the army that such leniency has been shown to deserters, and army officers are debating the wisdom of such a course. Secretary Root is said to be firm in his plan, however, and gives as his reason for leniency that the deserters are probably only disappointed at not getting a chance to fight and that such men are needed to carry Krag-Jorgensens in defence of the United States. He has added that the military prisons throughout the country are already filled with material for good soldiers and no more convicts are needed. The cases of desertion have multiplied with exceeding rapidity, and in place of the old method of offering rewards and placing detectives on the track of the runaways the Secretary of Waz, it is said, believes that American recruits will be honest enough to come back and serve their term of enlistment.

The War Department has another plan on foot to offer all soldiers mustered out in the Philippines inducements to remain there and colonize. A certain sum will be added to the pay and travel allowance when the men are mustered out in case they remain in the archipelago and settle down. This method has been used by all powers having colonial possessions, and has been found to have a splendid effect. It is to use the value of the possessions, besides setting up a model in a manner of fiving and methods of civilization, which would be certain to be adopted by the natives in short order.
